LAY LIBRARY CORNER STONE. Papers Sealed in Bellows Falls Carnegie Building.

Bellows Falls, Oct. 9.-The laying of ie corner stone of the new Carnegie public library occurred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock with appropriate ex-ercises. Hon, A. N. Swain, president of the board of trustees, was master of ceremonies and placed a scaled copper box, containing the history of the public librory fund prepared by L. S. Hayes, and a copy of other important Hibrary records in the niche prepared Addresses were made by Principal A. E. Tuttle of the high school and C.

W. Osgood. The local movement for a free public ibrary dates back to 1882, when a library dramatic association was formed and gave a play, the proceeds of which a resident of the state during the last formed the nucleus of the first library two years, viz. that conditions are fund. The most enthusiastic and hardworking person in this enterprise was of the "local option" law, a statement Edward D.
